

From: Ross Arnott [<mailto:Ross.Arnott@scotland.pnn.police.uk>]
Sent: 10 December 2013 08:21
To: ben@
Subject: Clutha Public House

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED

Ben

Sorry for taking so long to get back to you but work has been rather hectic.

I know you probably met lots of people from the emergency services during the Clutha Public House incident and hopefully you will have been contacted by many of them. I personally met you at the front door of the sheriff court about 8am on the Saturday morning, dressed all in black when I told you about the job that I faced.

I was firstly looking to thank you and your team for coming out and assisting by making hot rolls, tea and biscuits on the Friday night / Saturday morning. When you have been without sleep, tired and aware of the job in front of you it was a most welcome site. When you read all the bad press that young people get nowadays it was a delight to see such a friendly group of young people doing a fantastic job by attending such a horrific scene.

When all the plaudits are handed out and about the incident I hope that this small e mail will be some sort of reward to you and your team.

Thanks again Ben it really is and was much appreciated.

Ross Arnott

Ross Arnott | Detective Constable

Police Service of Scotland, OCCTU (West), Counter Terrorism Unit

✉ 91 Meiklewood Road, Glasgow, G51 4DU

☎ Office (+0044) 0141 800 4628 (Network 769)

💻 ross.arnott@scotland.pnn.police.uk